

AGREEMENT

The Cross Country Emmaus Community ("CCEC"), is recognized by and in a written agreement, with the Upper Room of Nashville, TN., as an Emmaus Community with all rights and privileges thereof.

The CCEC Board of Directors, which administers the policies and procedures of this regional Emmaus Community, located in North Central West Texas, in accordance with their charter agreement with the Upper Room, has authorized this internet web site and the use of the name and logo of Cross Country Emmaus Community, for the benefit and promotion of this community.

The web site was designed and is maintained at no cost to the Cross Country Emmaus Community, by a member of the community, as an act of Agape. The Webmaster has been given permission, by the Board of Directors, to include on this site, the use of the name and logo of Cross Country Emmaus Community, and any material or information that is not contrary to the purposes and policies of Cross Country Emmaus Community or The Upper Room.

The Cross Country Emmaus Community and The Upper Room specifically deny any and all responsibility or liability for any articles, items, views or opinions displayed or expressed on this website, which may be contrary to the purposes, policies, procedures and/or agreement authorizing the use of anything associated with "Walk to Emmaus".

Materials submitted to the Webmaster for inclusion hereon, are screened for content, so as not to violate any policy or agreement authorizing the use of the "Walk to Emmaus" programs through The Upper Room. And while every reasonable and prudent effort will be made to see that the trust and confidence of the Upper Room and Cross Country Emmaus Community is not violated and/or compromised, all articles, materials, views and/or opinions expressed hereon, are strictly those of the person authoring the same.

No statement herein is meant to imply, infer or represent an official policy or position of Cross Country Emmaus Community or The Upper Room, as to the content of this web site. Comments and inquiries may be directed to the CCEC Webmaster. All correspondence received concerning the Cross Country Emmaus Community website will be made available to the Board of Directors for their consideration and action, if such is required or requested.
